

Purpose

This document defines how Thorne Industries responds to security incidents and data breaches.

Detection

Incidents may be detected through system logs, monitoring tools, or external notifications.

Response

Incidents are logged, assessed, and contained without undue delay.

Notification

Where personal data is involved, affected clients and authorities are notified within 72 hours.

Recovery

Systems are restored and corrective actions documented.